

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA ANNOUNCES THE 2023 TANGLEWOOD SUMMER SEASON, OPENING JUNE 22

TICKETS GO ON SALE TO THE PUBLIC AT 10AM ON MARCH 9 AT TANGLEWOOD.ORG OR 888-266-1200

The 85th Tanglewood season offers audiences a wide range of programs and events that spotlight favorite guest artists and repertoire, while introducing dynamic new performers, conductors, and composers, with 48 artists in their Tanglewood or BSO debuts, and works by 28 living composers, including world premieres and five BSO commissions

One of the country's premier summer music festivals—with dance, jazz, drama, and opera joining the mix in this year's line-up—Tanglewood welcomes all to its iconic grounds surrounded by the beautiful Berkshire Hills of western Massachusetts

Free lawn tickets for those under age 18 for BSO, Pops, and Tanglewood Music Center performances and discounted lawn ticket programs for students and Berkshire residents are among the many offerings that make Tanglewood a place for music lovers of all ages to enjoy throughout the summer

FURTHER INFORMATION ABOUT THE 2023 TANGLEWOOD SEASON

Quote from Andris Nelsons, Ray and Maria Stata BSO Music Director

“There is nothing like imagining being at Tanglewood and anticipating the abundant musical gifts that await us this summer in the Berkshires. With 44 artists making their debuts and works by 32 living composers, this year’s programs both inspire a sense of discovery and celebrate returning guest artists whose appearances move us so deeply year after year. All of us at the BSO look forward to welcoming our audiences back to the festival and encouraging newcomers to share in the absolute joy of experiencing a place that truly offers an extraordinary atmosphere for music-making.”

Quote from Jeffrey D. Dunn, BSO Interim President and CEO

“It is an honor and a thrill to be taking over as interim President and CEO of the Boston Symphony Orchestra as we announce the 85th summer season at Tanglewood. With its combination of natural beauty and artistic excellence, Tanglewood inspires both treasured memories and hopes of new experiences yet to be discovered. I look forward to joining Andris Nelson, Keith Lockhart, John Williams, the BSO’s musicians, staff, board members, and volunteers, and the Fellows of the Tanglewood Music Center in welcoming visitors to performances and events throughout the summer. We are proud to play an important role, along with our sister cultural organizations across the region, in making the beautiful Berkshires one of this country’s most popular summertime destinations.”

Formal titles for BSO conductors and guest composers

Andris Nelsons is the Ray and Maria Stata BSO Music Director; Keith Lockhart is the Julian and Eunice Cohen Boston Pops Conductor; John Williams is the George and Roberta Berry Boston Pops Conductor Laureate; Thomas Wilkins is the BSO Artistic Advisor, Education and Community Engagement and Germeshausen BSO Youth and Family Concerts Conductor; James Burton is the BSO Choral Director and Conductor of the Tanglewood Festival Chorus, *Alan J. and Suzanne W. Tanglewood

Tanglewood, one of the country’s premier summer music festivals and summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra since 1937, is located in the Berkshire Hills of Lenox and Stockbridge, Massachusetts. Tanglewood is also the home of the Tanglewood Music Center, the acclaimed summer music academy founded by Serge Koussevitzky in 1940. The Tanglewood Learning Institute, housed in the new Linde Center for Music and Learning (2019), is the Festival’s newest programming, offering dynamic and leading-edge performances and events connecting patrons with musicians, artists, students, academics, and cultural leaders through wide-ranging activities. Tanglewood also presents an annual Popular Artist series in the Koussevitzky Music Shed (1938) and recital and chamber music concerts in Ozawa Hall (1997). Tanglewood is a driver of more than $103 million in economic impact in the Berkshires each year, based on a 2018 third-party study by Stephen Sheppard, Professor of Economics at Williams College.
